

AMENDMENT TO THE CHARTER

2024 April 29. REP

First Reading

Article I, section g

g. Immediately following a meeting of the Congress, all resolutions and motions discussed at the meeting and proposed for adoption shall be voted upon by the members of the Congress, via confidential electronic ballot conducted by the Committee on Faculty Service. A majority of the votes cast in any referendum shall be sufficient to constitute the Congress' action on that resolution or motion.

AMEND to

Article I, section g,

g. Immediately following a meeting of the Congress, all resolutions and motions discussed at the meeting and proposed for adoption shall be voted upon by the members of the Congress, via confidential electronic ballot conducted by the ~~Committee on Faculty Service~~ Senate Executive Committee. A majority of the votes cast in any referendum shall be sufficient to constitute the Congress' action on that resolution or motion.

#1